Part 4 of 4

In Part 3 we considered the state through the Christian worldview lens, showing the comprehensiveness of the Fall and its effect on man, both personally and politically. We also considered the question of Exile or Dominion, of whether the church is destined for defeat in history or victory. We saw that exile is not the permanent status of God's people but rather victory and dominion. We also saw how this applies to the Great Commission of Matthew 28:18-20 and its mistranslation in modern versions, therefore contemporary Christians misconstruing it as a mandate for a pietistic and personal discipleship, rather than its true intent that the church disciple actual nations. In other words, building a Christian social order through the power of the Gospel and obedience to God's law-word. Lastly the fallenness and malfeasance of the state was considered, highlighting its medical tyranny as the example.

Casting back to Part 1, we will now consider how we should respond in a period of exile under God's covenant judgment. This entails Christian obedience to a higher power. And lastly, we will provide reliable sources that expose the truth behind COVID and the 26 bullet points of the elitist agenda listed in Part 1.

Additionally we provide resources that show how to take control of your own health management considering the medical fraud perpetrated for the last 100 years. These resources will show how the virology and germ paradigm sold to the world – by Big-Pharma, governments and medical establishment – was fraudulent from the beginning. This fact alone coming to the light will destroy the elitist medical tyranny. We then provide links to a proven plant-based wholefood diet developed by emeritus Professor Colin Campbell from Cornell University as taught and practised by Christian MD Scott Stoll. Our family has been following this diet (and more) for the last 3 years with significant results. With this diet and several other protocols we did not take the COVID-19 shot or any flu shots. Despite recovering from preexisting health issues none of us showed any symptoms of so-called COVID-19 nor of the flu during the 3 years of the 'scaredemic'. We also include resources for house-hygiene to address sources of disease-causing toxicity: chemicals and electromagnetic frequencies.

Now to how we posture ourselves in exile.

Resistance in Exile

Joseph and Daniel both served Yahweh in exile, in the pagan world-system. There they encountered the choice between serving God or mammon, the world-system or Yahweh. Even though in captivity and possessing high office, rather than accommodating the pagan culture they chose to identify with the covenant people (cf. Moses, Heb. 11:24-26). They were hence in the world but not of it (cf. Jn. 17:14-18). From his youth and training in Babylon, Daniel set himself apart as a covenant person by refusing to eat the Babylonian diet (Dan. 2:8-21), hence his obedience to God's law was known publicly (Dan. 6:5). His identity and status were not, therefore, in Babylon as the world-power, but in Yahweh and his covenant people. He established the antithesis regarding Babylon by making his covenant-stand public.

Despite being of the highest character and office, Daniel defied Babylon's claim to total sovereignty by praying publicly in the face of a prohibition that meant certain death. By so doing he declared the sovereignty of Yahweh over the empire and its god-king, Darius. As a result, God miraculously intervened, rescuing Daniel from the lion's mouth (Dan. 6). So, even though in exile and serving under the world-power, Daniel resisted tyranny when the world-power asserted sovereignty over Yahweh, who is the Sovereign over all nations, rulers and kings. Any other sovereign is a mere pretender. The authority exercised by Darius, or the Sanhedrin, by either religious or civil leaders, is delegated authority. It is a proxy authority, standing in for another. And hence possesses no original or intrinsic authority. The state is a created category, and therefore, the Creator-God is its original and supreme authority (Rom. 13:1-7; Ps. 75:7). At the Ascension this was given to the One who sits at the right hand of God, the Lord Jesus Christ, who declared, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me" (Mt. 28:19).

Likewise Peter and the apostles. Having been gaoled and forbidden by the Sanhedrin – under the aegis of Rome – not to teach in the name of Jesus, answered, “We must obey God rather than men.” (Acts 5:29; also 4:19-20); the reason being, that “God exalted him [Jesus] at his right hand as Leader [or Prince, NASB] and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins.” (Acts 5:31). In other words, the apostles’ warrant for preaching the Gospel was issued by a higher authority than either Rome or Jerusalem. Messiah the Prince, the Lord Jesus Christ, is Sovereign Ruler over the state. Having been raised from the dead he was then raised to the right hand of the Majesty on High, the ‘right hand’ symbolising power and authority (Heb. 1:3; also Mt. 22:44; 26:64; Mk. 16:19; Acts 2:33-34; 5:31; 7:55;-56; Rom. 8:34; Eph. 1:20; Col. 3:1; Heb. 1:13; 8:1; 10:12; 12:2; 1 Pet. 3:22). Clearly, Messiah’s authority is not only religious but also political, the Sanhedrin representing both. Therefore, the apostles’ demonstrated that being under a higher authority demands disobedience to the lesser authority when it breaches the will of the greater. But by what standard does one tell whether the will of the greater is breached by the lesser? This is not left to opinion or any subjective determination. It is revealed in detail in the Scriptures and especially the law of the OT (see Greg Bahnsen’s landmark book, Theonomy in Christian Ethics). The qualifications for kings and the delimitations for their role are particularly stipulated.

Whether the apostles under Rome, or Daniel under Persia and Babylon, or Joseph under Egypt, the sovereignty resided in the Lord, not in kings or their empires. Therefore, when the laws of kings transgress the laws of God his servants are duty-bound to obey God rather than men and, hence, resist tyranny. For example, clergymen and their councils are therefore obligated to maintain the public worship of their churches even though the state decrees otherwise, ‘emergency measures’ or not (e.g. covid).

Victory in Exile

Daniel’s interpretation of Nebuchadnezzar’s dream (the image of a human colossus) then set forth world history, culminating in the collapse of the image — of the entire humanist construct. Predicted by Daniel, the pagan power-state was once-for-all crushed in the days of the Roman Empire by the coming of Messiah’s Kingdom (Dan. 2, 7). Christ’s Ascension and Enthronement, in the climax of history, was the definitive destruction of not merely the Roman Empire but of the category which it represented—the humanistic power-state. It was not merely the legs and feet of the colossus (Rome) but also middle and thighs (Greece), chest and arms (Medo-Persia), and finally, its head (Babylon) (Dan.2). In other words the entire pagan construct, in defiance of the one sovereign God, is defeated in history:

And in the days of these kings [i.e. in history] the God of heaven will set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed; and the kingdom shall not be left to other people; it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever.

Daniel 2:44 (author emphasis)

The writer to the Hebrews also speaks of this definitive victory and its implications:

⁵ For He did not subject to angels the world to come, about which we are speaking. ⁶ But someone has testified somewhere, saying,

“What is man, that You think of him?

Or a son of man, that You are concerned about him?

⁷ You have made him for a little while lower than angels;

You have crowned him with glory and honor;

⁸ You have put everything in subjection under his feet.”

For in subjecting all things to him, He left nothing that is not subject to him. But now we do not yet see all things subjected to him.

⁹ But we do see Him who was made for a little while lower than the angels, namely, Jesus, because of His suffering death crowned with glory and honor, so that by the grace of God He might taste death for everyone.

Hebrews 2:5-9 NASB

In the context of Hebrews the “world to come” signifies the New Covenant era. As Hebrew believers they are struggling betwixt two orders, the OT economy and the New, with a foot in both worlds. They were in transition. Even so, the new would not fully come until the destruction of the old’s sacrificial system in the AD 70 destruction of the Temple. With that epochal event the old Jewish world passed away and the new began. And that new world was not only universal – embracing Jew and Gentile – but also it was subjected to a man who had been crowned and appointed over the created order, not to angels. “All things”, every created category, every domain of life, was now actively governed by Christ the King and his law-word. This was no mere platonic upper story ‘spiritual reign’ but rather a real government of the material world in history.

However, there is a problem: “But now we do not yet see all things subjected to him.” (v. 8). Not everything in the material world is presently under his functional control. So, what is the answer?—“But we do see Him who was made for a little while lower than the angels, namely, Jesus, ... crowned with glory and honor” (v. 9). Jesus, whose victory was momentarily overtaken by suffering and death, in God’s perfect timing was raised and then ascended in time-space history, in the reign of Tiberius Caesar. So, here is the question, What do we see? Is our vision filled with the momentary inconsistency of history, or is it filled with the fearsome and majestic authority of Messiah, who is installed as Ruler over “all things”?

Citing Psalm 110, Paul explains to the Corinthians: “For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet.” (1 Cor. 15:25). The word “until” serves as a preposition of time and of purpose. As the former it signifies a continuous action that stops at a specific time. Hence, Christ’s reign, of putting his enemies under his feet, continues progressively, only terminating when every enemy is subdued. As the latter (preposition of purpose), it signifies that the purpose of the continuous action, of the flow of time (i.e. history) is that Christ may reign to bring every enemy into subjection through his ecclesia: “...I will build my church [ecclesia], and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.” (Mt. 16:18). We are therefore not awaiting his second coming for that to occur; this rather was the purpose of his first coming and of history!

Christ’s definitive and yet progressive victory over his enemies is like that of the Allies over Hitler during WW2. From the D-Day landing of Normandy, 1944, Hitler’s doom was set in stone. This is not to trivialise the sacrifice and courage required to press on to Berlin, winning the war, battle by battle, until VE Day, 12-months later. Nonetheless from the Normandy landing onwards, the war was in effect a ‘mopping up’ operation.

Likewise Satan’s defeat has occurred definitively, at the resurrection and ascension and is occurring progressively as the ecclesia advances by waging war through the word of God. Therefore, battle by battle, we can declare with boldness in the face of every pretender that, “As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord!”

To return to Daniel, while he did not see the collapse of the human colossus in the days of the Roman Empire, like all the OT saints he reached forward by the spirit of faith and brought Messiah’s victory into the present. And hence stood in defiance of Babylon and Persia. We too may not see the total defeat of the present tyranny in our lifetime but in a spirit of prophecy we stand in Messiah’s definitive victory, calling it forward into the present. In other words, our eschatology is determined by our soteriology. We declare that there is “no other name under heaven by which men can be saved” (Acts 4:12). There is no Caesar nor political messiah that can save mankind. The present global elites, like those that have preceded them, are devoted to destruction. If Jesus definitively defeated Satan and his empire in the days of Rome, we can continue to enforce that victory over the present world-empire; and this, through the proclamation and demonstration of the government of God, resulting in a new Christian social order.

Why is COVID-19 a Fraud?

Now, as to the specifics of COVID-19 and the political machinations that surround it. Contra to the claims of many, the sources of a counternarrative are not just social-media. While, at first blush, this may appear to be the case, there is an avalanche of evidence from credible sources – scientists, lawyers, medical doctors, researchers, and commentators – that is overwhelming and irrefutable. It only takes a modicum of critical thinking to conclude that something is amiss. Because of the current climate of control – of political correctness – these people have been cancelled, including their careers, and scorned by the world. Some are leading world authorities in their specialities. They are victims of the new pharisaism: social-media virtue-signalling and cancel-culture. Any that dare differ from the official narrative are rendered social pariahs. Free speech is derided, and censorship is the order of the day. The accusation that truth-tellers are spreading “misinformation” is the language of wartime state propaganda, not that of an open and free society characterised by the free exchange of ideas and information. Anyone’s use of the terminology more than suggests their adoption of a secular-humanist worldview and of a statist ideology. These are not Christian virtues.

You may ask as to how I can claim that COVID-19 is a fraud. First, this is patently manifest in the fact that the c19 shots do not work! This has been admitted by Bill Gates, Pfizer, and CDC. Governments and public health authorities worldwide promised ad nauseum that they would be “safe and effective”, stopping infection and transmission. Neither have proven to be the case. As to safety, in addition to official adverse events reporting systems (which only reflect approx. 1% of the actual), insurance statistics, mortality rates, and labour shortages have significantly increased after the COVID-19 injection regime. Dr. Francis Boyle, author of the 1989 Bioweapons and Antiterrorism Act, and one of the world’s most credible authorities on this topic, is clear that the C19 injections meet the legal definition of a biological weapon. This reality has led to the 'ban the jab resolution' in the US which states that C19 injections are biological and technological weapons that violate the Nuremberg code, and calls for the legislature to ban the injections. It has been passed in numerous counties in the USA. (See the link below, Comprehensive Overview of American Domestic Bioterrorism Program for the legal framework backing US bioterrorism). Second, investigation has shown the involvement of the US Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency (DARPA) and Department of Defense (DOD) in the overall development and deployment of the COVID-19 project. The pharmaceutical companies have merely overseen manufacture not development. It must be asked as to how a public health initiative emerging from a military establishment is not a contradiction of terms. This fact alone is sufficient to indicate a nefarious agenda. The links below substantiate these facts and much more. Robert F. Kennedy’s interview with Sasha Latypova discusses this.

All the above demands that the Christian believer view the state and its agencies (including technocrats) with a healthy dose of scepticism. These institutions for the reasons already adduced are not benign. This includes mainstream news media and Big Tech. They are compromised for similar reasons and cannot be trusted. As a result, so called fact-checking is not and cannot be neutral. The Christian must engage in independent critical thinking, utilising the Christian worldview. Google and Wikipedia are not reliable sources, they control and censor the transfer of information, conforming to the official narrative of the power elites.

Unless one’s mind is renewed by the word of God in terms of the biblical worldview this read on the official narrative will seem counterintuitive. An intellectual conversion is required. As with all transactions of this nature, only a humbling of oneself will open the heart and mind to greater light. This will demand a commitment to bear the reproach with Christ outside the city gates, to forsake the approval of the world-system and its esteem. Our praise is from God, not men.

The elites have comprehensive plans for global governance. These are so multifaceted and wide-ranging that it’s impossible to cover the full breadth here.

Now, to a curated selection of sources for your consideration.

RESOURCES FOR UNDERSTANDING THE COVID FRAUD AND TAKING CONTROL OF YOUR OWN HEALTH MANAGEMENT:

Alive!: A Physician's Biblical and Scientific Guide to Nutrition. Dr Scott Stoll

The growing body of scientific evidence confirms that making a simple shift toward foods that God created (i.e. wholefoods), not only prevents disease but also has the power to reverse diseases such as heart disease and diabetes. God's plan is always perfect. Based upon extensive research, his medical practice and the timeless wisdom of God's word, Dr Stoll shares God's plan for food and health that was designed to draw us back to a daily relationship with Him. The forty chapters in this book represent a transformational journey toward a biblically balanced understanding of health and a revelational understanding of the power of food that will strengthen both the body and the spirit.

Health for All of Life: A Medical Manifesto of Hope and Healing for the Nations. Dr Jason Garwood

Despite tremendous advances in medicine and technology, we are sicker than ever, and much of our modern “healthcare” has become nothing more than death-care. We have forgotten the natural, God-given systems in the body that can often be healed by simple protocols found in creation. Garwood has written an indispensable manifesto on the intersection of faith, Christian doctrine, and health. It is scientifically and theologically informed as well as immensely practical in regaining a faith-filled vision of health and healing.

What Really Makes You Ill?: Why Everything You Thought You Knew About Disease Is Wrong. Dawn Lester & David Parker

A must read to understand the flaws about illness and disease that is promulgated by the medical establishment, while also regaining a true understanding of the root causes of disease and how you can take control of your own health.

Dissolving Illusions: Disease, Vaccines, and The Forgotten History. Suzanne Humphries MD, Roman Bystrianyk

Today, we are told that medical interventions increased our lifespan and single-handedly prevented masses of deaths. But is this really true? Dissolving Illusions details facts and figures showing that vaccines, antibiotics, and other medical interventions are not responsible for the increase in lifespan and the decline in mortality from infectious diseases.

The Invisible Rainbow: A History of Electricity and Life. Arthur Firstenberg

5g is being rolled out across the world despite growing evidence that it is disruptive to our health, our safety, and the environment. The Invisible Rainbow is the ground-breaking story of electricity as it's never been told before, exposing its very real impact on the biosphere and human health.

Dr Robert Young

Over the past two and a half decades Robert O. Young has been widely recognized as one of the top research and clinical scientists in the world. Throughout his career his research has been focused at the cellular level. Having a specialty in cellular nutrition, biochemistry and microbiology, Dr. Young has devoted his life to researching the true causes of "disease", subsequently developing "The New Biology™" to help people balance their life.

A Farewell to 'Virology'. Dr Mark Bailey

A landmark refutation of the virus model. Foundational to exposing the c19 fraud and any future manufactured ‘pandemics’.

Drs Sam and Mark Bailey, a husband-and-wife team, have a mountain of information on their site detailing the Covid Fraud and germ theory more broadly. They are an invaluable resource for understanding not only the flaws undergirding the present medical paradigm but also what true health is and how to implement it.

The Final Pandemic: An Antidote To Medical Tyranny. Drs Sam and Mark Bailey

Buy: Amazon

Humanity is under assault from pandemics but not for the reasons that the mainstream sources portray. This book examines the claims regarding alleged “contagious” disease outbreaks such as COVID-19 to shed more light on what they are, or perhaps more importantly, what they are not. The belief that germs from the natural environment (or a laboratory) are attacking us has led most of the population to go along with lockdowns, civil rights restrictions, unprecedented peacetime censorship and more vaccines. However, when the foundational science is exposed and it is understood how the cases are created, no “pandemic” looks the same ever again.

How the modern medical paradigm came together in the early 20th century, courtesy of the Rockefeller Foundation. This fact alone is a dealbreaker.

13 points summarising the current situation in USA and globally.

Sasha Latypova worked 25yrs in the pharmaceutical industry running clinical trials for all major pharmaceutical companies. She is now the cofounder of 'How Bad is My Batch'; a website where anyone can look up the lot number of their shot and see the number of deaths and disabilities associated with it.

No One Knows What's in the Vials. Sasha Latypova

Underlines the blind experiment that has been rolled out globally and must be stopped immediately. While independent analysis of the vials was prohibited, 26 independent research teams across the globe have analysed them demonstrating the complete contamination of these products, not complying with the current Good Manufacturing Practices (cGMP). This has resulted in some lethal batches and some more benign batches. Her article addresses issues of contamination and looks at independent analysis of the vials.

The legal architecture supporting the Covid national prison panopticon and how it fits with the oddly-coordinated pandemic story told by governments worldwide; and how it relates to the World Health Organization International Health Regulations of 2005 at the centre.

Lab Leak: An Elaborate Misdirection? Health Freedom Defense Fund.

Excellent overview of the COVID fraud. Using basic critical thinking, this article further exposes the falsity of the lab leak theory with its gain of function fiction, commonly advocated by leaders in the health freedom movement. It explores its origins and intent to misdirect public attention from the criminal fraud and outright genocide that has occurred through the collaboration of despotic public and private agents.

COVID Crisis, Global Financial Reset, and Individual Empowerment. Catherine Austin Fitts

Together, these two books seek to provide the "big picture" regarding the shocking transformations in the global political economy since 2020.

The Evil Twins of Technocracy and Transhumanism, Patrick Wood

Both are primary to the World Economic Forum's Great Reset, in partnership with the United Nations, to replace Capitalism with an alternative economic system called Sustainable Development, aka Technocracy. Further, humans themselves are targeted by Transhumanists to change the human condition into Humans 2.0 via genetic engineering. Thus, Technocracy transforms the structure and economic system of the world, while Transhumanism transforms the people who live there. Both see themselves as the new intelligent designers of the world, including humans.

Discusses the rubbery clots found in the recently deceased and their dangers.

The evidence of the deployment of 'nanotechnology' is contested. While we do not believe that, in God's providential ordering of the world, any nanotechnology can be successful in its transhumanist aim to merge man with machine, it nonetheless seems to be clear from documentation that some form of nanotechnology or nanoparticles, which has been long in the works, has been deployed and is causing harm, effectively poisoning people. Some have even referred to the ubiquity and toxicity of nanoparticles/tech as the 'new asbestos'.
